

Frontend Task

Bike details

You have to develop a pseudo web page for bike details. The web page let user to select the bike image from a list of thumbnails and should have following functionalities:

[Basic Requirments]

- On clicking any of the thumbnail corosponding image should appear.
- An indicator should highlight the selected thumbnail.
- Each image should have proper animation.

[Advance Requirments]

- In rating section both progress bars and overall rating must have animation of increasing values from 0 to target value.
- Images should have sliding transition.
- Host the page on github.

[Addition Options]

- Option to rate the bike
- Option to add a new image

[Test Instructions]

- You are not allowed to use bootstrap or any other framework.
- Required assetss are included in assets file.
- Web page should be fully responsive (mobile and desktop friendly).
- After completion of the task send us the git repository and hosted link (else share the compressed file of task)
- Feel free to use your own dimensions and colours to create the design

[Tech Stack]

- HTML
- CSS
- Javascript

[Wireframe reference]

